Has your life been on hold?

Are you waiting for the perfect moment to start a new business, go back to school, say goodbye to a job or relationship that doesn't suit you anymore? Have you hit the pause button on happiness as you wait for that special person/career/opportunity to come into your life to make you happy and complete - now realizing you've been on pause for a very long time? Are you standing in line for the "next available operator," week after week, waiting for money difficulties to be over, to finally experience prosperity? How are you doing physically? Who would you be without your pain? Are you ready to find out?

You've been waiting long - many of us have. Sometime we hear the phone call of opportunity ring only to discover it was a wrong number. We experience being put on hold for what seems like hours, only to be unceremoniously disconnected. We dial what we "know" is the correct number, only to find it was wrong all along. And don't even get us started about voice mail. Did Satan himself design that system? You know the scheme... the one that bounces us from extension to extension, never getting to the correct department. When we try to leave a message, we find the mailbox full and no one ever returns our calls.

Does this sound familiar?

Yup, we hear you.

Been there, done that too ... but we have finally found the correct extension.

We no longer place our life on HOLD – and you don't have to either.

True happiness can be found at next phone booth or power-up station.
It's time to plug in and imagine a whole new way of thinking and doing.

BTW, you've had all the right equipment all along. You just need some regrouping time, fresh ideas and guidance from the Woman of Positivity. We specialize in teaching woman how to get off "hold" and into the flow of positivity and possibilities. We give you the tools toward your own empowerment and show you what courage looks like so you can reach your full potential. Through information, motivation and inspiration (and YES, plenty of FUN) we train you how to use your God given talent to navigate your call(ing)s and your life.

Your life is calling.

It's been dialing your number for a long time now.

In the Presence of Positive Women, led by Debby Hoffman Adair, began with a one-day seminar in the spring of 2000 in Manchester, NH. Women were encouraged to gathered from all walks of life with the only common denominator being: they were positive, they were sometimes positive or they wanted to be more positive. The success of that day spawned the idea of a membership where women could gather in person or on-line, and encourage each other to dream big, overcome obstacles and become their true selves. Programs included one-day presentations, evening gatherings, networking lunches and women's empowerment retreats. 2016 marks the beginning of a nation wide tour, bringing the Women of Positivity to share messages of positivity, possibilities, purpose and prosperity across the country.
